

Chronicle.—Miss Nina Jones of Santa Barbara, who is spending part of the winter here, has shared honors this week with the debutantes in the amount of entertaining which she has to her credit. Miss Suzanne Kirkpatrick, the charming fiancée of Allan MacDonald, presided over a pretty luncheon in her honor at the Fairmont on Thursday, at which Miss Mand Wilson, Miss Louise MacCormick, Miss Maed Williams, Miss Amy Bowles, Miss Harriet Alexander, Miss Dolly MacGavin and Miss Marian Miller were asked to meet her.

On Wednesday Misses Elizabeth and Marian Newhall entertained in her honor, and those who shared the pleasure of the luncheon with her were: Miss Martha Calhoun, Miss Mary Keeny, Miss Jeanne Gallois, Miss Marion Zeile and Miss Florence Hopkins.

She will be the guest of Miss Alexander for several weeks, and this afternoon a pretty informal tea has been planned for her by her hostess, the guests at which will include a number of the entertaining men and attractive girls of the younger set.

Chronicle.—Society is interesting itself in the coming concerts of Miss Adele Case, who is also being made the recipient of much social attention. On Wednesday Mrs. E. Sadler gave a tea in her honor at the Fairmont, at which she entertained about a dozen guests.

Chronicle.—A temporary visitor to San Francisco who is receiving much social attention is Mrs. Uriel Sebree, wife of Admiral Sebree, who reached here from Honolulu several days ago and is at the Fairmont for a week prior to her departure for the South. Mrs. Sebree left yesterday for Coronado, where she will spend the Thanksgiving holiday with her father. She will return to San Francisco before Christmas.

Chronicle.—Colonel A. W. Simpson, U. S. A., has returned to San Francisco from New London, Conn., where he went to attend the wedding of his

She also visited at the country home of her fiancée's family while in New York, and during her stay in the metropolitan city was a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilman Norris (Kathleen Thompson). Theirs will be a spring wedding, dated after the return from Manila of Ensign Hartigan's ship, the West Virginia. Among the close friends of the lovely bride-to-be who were first told the happy secret at the tea were Mrs. Henry M. Rideout, Mrs. Franklin Harwood, Mrs. St. George Holden, Mrs. James Abbott, Miss Laura Benet, Miss Marian Huntington, Miss Marian Wright, Miss Elsa Draper, Miss Dorothy Draper.

Upon their return from the Orient Mr. and Mrs. Gearin will reside in Portland.

Friends of Miss Julia Dean—who, by the way, is now Mrs. Orme Caldera—will be pleased to hear of the success she is making in the East. She has been selected by David Belasco for one of the leading roles in his new play

Call.—The list of winter engagements is receiving new additions every day, but none more interesting than the announcement yesterday that Miss Katherine Hind Renton is to be the bride of Thomas Rolph at an April wedding. The bride-elect is in Honolulu, but will return soon after the holiday season, since she passes much of her time in this city and is the center of a devoted coterie of friends. She is a charming, accomplished girl and a graduate of Mills college. Miss Renton is a pretty girl of the brunette type and has a winsome manner and personality that makes her a welcome guest at social affairs here and in Honolulu. Her fiancé is one of the well known young businessmen of the city and is identified with banking concerns and the steamship company that bears the family name.

CHRISTMAS GOOD CHEER.

A Christmas sale will be held next Saturday in a store in the Young building next door to the cable office, from eleven to four o'clock. The fancy table will have some unique articles for Xmas gifts. A cold lunch with a hot cup of tea will be served—"bread, knuckle o' ham, regular pie—beef in slices, very good." At the delicatessen table there will be chickens and chickens, "stuffed with all honorable virtues," brown bread, pork and beans, spiced tongue and "veal pie, very good thing is a veal pie, when you know the lady as made it," moulded pigs feet, mince and apple pies, cranberry and lemon tarts and all sorts of fine cakes. All these things and more for "the grateful stomach of the judicious epicure." The ladies of Leahi Chapter No. 2, O. E. S., have the sale in charge and are working hard to make it successful.

The old Fishmarket square has been cleaned up by prisoners, the trees trimmed and cement flooring washed down, so that the place makes a very presentable appearance again.
